

Dan Gallagher
San Rafael, CA

Dan is results oriented on all matters pertaining to social service, education, and foster care reform in California. His expertise includes child welfare, behavioral health, juvenile justice, and education systems of care. For decades Dan has been involved in programs serving vulnerable and disadvantaged populations, focusing on youth and their families.

Dan's experience with advocacy, policy and planning, legislation, business operations and financial systems, fund development and program design has resulted in added programs and in increasing the number of clients who are able to receive services.

With over three decades of experience in the non-profit sector, Dan served as Executive Director at St. Vincent's School for Boys in San Rafael. He led St. Vincent's to become one of the first Northern California programs to be licensed as a Short-Term Residential Treatment program. Dan also worked with the California Alliance for Children and Family Services, an education and advocacy group dedicated to equal access for children and families.

Dan is committed to advocating for, developing and leading services that support people living at home where they feel dignity and comfort.
